

CV DR. JÖRG SEELMANN-EGGEBERT

Dr. Jörg Seelmann-Eggebert has been developing and taking responsibility for highly automated software solutions for the financial and non-financial sector in a leading position as an expert for credit risk processes for more than 20 years.

In his role as Chief Strategic and Sales Officer at axytos, he is responsible for the strategic development into new markets and business areas in addition to the sales of the industry-agnostic white label BNPL platform.

Prior to his current position, Dr. Jörg Seelmann-Eggebert was for many years a member of the Executive Board at SHS Viveon AG, a provider of software-based solutions in the field of risk and credit management.
